

Math/STEM Instructor, Middle College High School

Middle College High School, a public charter school on the campus of UNM-Gallup, is seeking a teacher endorsed in math. MCHS offers dual credit high school courses and gives strong preference to applicants who possess a master degree in content specific to the position. Preference is additionally given to applicants who may also be able to teach related science content, and who are experienced in working with diverse student groups, such as those who comprise the school's aggregate enrollment. Middle College High School offers a highly competitive salary and benefits. Interested applicants are encouraged to send inquiries and resumes to Dr. Hunter at rhunter@mchsgallup.com.